FUNDING OF DEBT Advocated by Warden Bullard from

Standpoint of Economy. In all probability the new borough administration will arrange for funding the floating indebtedness of the borough of Danielson. Warden Bullard is a believer in the advisability of such action and is of the opinion that he the many augusted the borthat by the means suggested the bor-ough may be enabled to borrow money at a lower rate of interest than is now obtainable and effect thereby a gaving on the amount of interest charges to be paid. Loans to the borcharges to be paid. Loans to the bor-ough are now made on a five per cent, basis. If the success of other bor-oughs in Connecticut in disposing of their bond issues can be duplicated in Danielson, this place should be able to secure all the funds it may require at four per cent, and possibly for a little less.

MILITARY MINSTRELS Witnessed by Large and Delighted Audience Tuesday Evening.

There were many spontaneous bursts of applause and many hearty laughs at the military minstrels given by the Thirteenth company, coast artillery corps, in the Town hall Tuesday evening. Sam Johnson, the Willimantic minstrel man, has been coaching the cast for weeks and last evening the audience smiled audibly at the funny things said and done by the jolly entertainers in the anusing makeups and tertainers in the amusing makeups and the general verdict was that it was the best kind of a show. Serg Ira Warren was Interlocutor and Warren was interlocutor and around the circle were Sidney Marjand, Charles Myers, James Day, bones; Harold Smith, Henry Myers, William Ormsby, tambos; John Balley, Albert Warren and F. W. Darmer, soloists. The opening number was styled The Coast Artillery Overture, a medley of popular songs sung by the en-The Coast Artillery Overture, a medley of popular songs sung by the entire company. Under the Chicken Tree, as sung by Sidney Marland, was given added favor by means of the "essence of old Virginniy" dance, in which the six end men participated. Sam Johnson and A. L. Sam Johnson, bone expert—ith his original imitations of shaving a man, won generous applause. You're Just the Girl for Me, sung by Albert Warren; You're Just the One for Me, sung by Clayton Hillard, and The siind Pig, sung by John Bailey were among the real good things of the first part, which was concluded with the following Grand Army songs, the curtain ringing down on Uncle Sam shaking hands with a Grand Army man: Farewell, sung by F. W. Darmer; The Vacant Chair, sung by Earl Wood of Wauregan; Battle Cry of Freedom, Yankee Doodle, choruses.

Now that the momentous question of the Easter Suit and Bonnet is settled, your thoughts will naturally revert to the next most important event-at this time, namely, the house and housecleaning. There is invariably some new furnishings needed on this occasion; in fact, housecleaning would have no charm to the housewife were it not for this. It stimulates her ambition to do this arduous task because she is assured of an agreeable change after it is done by buying something new and different to look

It was voted to appropriate $2,000 to street. After considerable discussion It was voted to appropriate $2,000 to macadamize a section of Main street and Furnace avenue, provided the town will appropriate the same amount. As this is to be a permanent improvement there seems to be little doubt but that the necessary appropriation will be made by the town. The street is in very bad condition in front of the Congregational shurch and there is urgent gregational church, and there is argent necessity for having it repaired, and it is the intention of the authorities to have the town and borough work in conjunction with the trolley company in making the repairs. The building of the trolley road left the street in bad share. The next article in the warning for the meeting was to see if the borough would accept Converse street as a public street. This is the street which runs from Center street near the new Faulkner block to West Main

Circular letters will be issued to all the councils of the Knights of Colum-bus in Connecticut this week endorsing the candidacy, by Cargill council of Putnam, of M. M. Dwyer for election Putnam, of M. M. Dwyer for election as a delegate to the national convention, which meets in Mobile, Ala., in August. Mr. Dwyer was a delegate hast year. There is a growing conviction among the membership throughout the state that as many as is possible of the old delegation should be returned, in or der that their previous experience may be utilized in securing assessment. may be utilized in securing assessment relief for the older members in Con-necticut, a difficult proceeding for members with experience in national conventions, and far more so to those who go as delegates for the first time. Coughs and Colds Attributed to Dust. Scores of cases of grip, bronchial olds, sore throats and whooping cough are making life miserable for Putnan residents. A poculiar fact in connec-tion with the cases is that many adults
